

Earlene Baggett-Hayes

Earlene Baggett-Hayes is an attorney, arbitrator, mediator, magistrate, fact-finder and trainer. She is president of the Law and Mediation Center, PLLC, in Michigan, and is also certified to practice law in Illinois. Earlene has arbitrated and mediated cases for over twenty years. Among the arbitration panels are FINRA, the National Association of Railway Referees, the United States Postal Service APWU and NALC panels, and the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. Earlene regularly mediates cases and was inducted into the International Academy of Mediators as a distinguished fellow and received the State Bar of Michigan “Award for Distinguished Service in ADR.” Community service and mentoring are also staples in Earlene’s practice.